

CITY OF LONDON OLD GIRLS' ASSOCIATION

March 2017

Dear Parent,

The City of London School for Girls is a unique school based in the heart of the City of London and the alumni association, affectionately known as CLOGA, is a lively part of the School's community. It was formed two years after the School's foundation in 1894, enabling former pupils to keep in touch with one another and the School. We have maintained this ideal in the 21st century, but have expanded our objectives and horizons.

We arrange reunions, meetings and outings to places of interest, and have Regional Groups for members who live outside London. We have a page on the School's website, and are particularly proud of our database enabling us to seek careers advice and work experience for present and past pupils. We produce an excellent magazine annually, with contributions from former pupils from all over the world and across the generations. The Association enables former pupils to network both socially and business-wise and will give your daughter the opportunity of gaining and keeping contacts throughout her life.

We hope your daughter will have a stimulating and fulfilling time at CLSG and wish to maintain her links with the School and her friends by becoming a member of CLOGA. A life subscription costs £300, recovered in instalments through the School fees invoice as follows: for entry at Year 7, 15 terms at £20 a term; for entry at Year 12, six terms at £50 a term. This is added automatically to your bill but, if you wish to opt out of this, you may do so by completing the form below and returning it to the Finance/HR Manager at CLSG.

I cannot commend our Association more to you since, on joining the School, your daughter becomes a Daughter of the City and by joining CLOGA she will become a member of a unique circle of people with a great tradition.
